AUCTION BULLETIN

We are sure that the many owners of unused Furniture are not doing the best they can to help themselves, or their neighbors. What does it profit you, that that old Bed suite shall stay year after year in the basement, or those old but very useful Chairs shall remain in the attic, you can absolutely sell them for fair value at any time in the Auction Rooms, and if you do not need the money, buy subsistence for a Lincolntonshire Baby, there are many left in the Pen country, whose fathers died that we may be peacefully sleeping. It seems as if the Boches had a special spite against the fields and pastures where the writer played in boyhood, as they come back again and again to Hereward the Wakes country to kill and maim chiefly women and little children. Look around for your left off Furniture and send it to Honolulu Auction Rooms. J. S. Ba' y.
